

Opportunities for Master Gardener™ Volunteers at End of the Oregon Trail
Interpretive Center Demonstration Garden 1726 Washington Street, Oregon City, OR 97045

Partner Activities: Heirloom vegetable and herb garden planning, cultivation, maintenance, and harvest activities with opportunities to learn about soil care, composting, and plant varieties used by pioneer emigrants. Seed saving and packaging for sale at the Interpretive Center gift shop. Heirloom rose garden maintenance with opportunities to learn about pruning techniques and companion plantings. Explore the history of our county through the stories about these hardy plants. Also under cultivation are several heirloom apple trees, grapes and hops. Learn how these plants enhanced the lives of our pioneer forefathers.

Program Activities: Partnership with Interpretive Center to provide educational talks and activities to school groups as requested. This provides an opportunity to work with young people on an occasional basis (mostly spring field trips for 4th graders) and sometimes talks to adult groups on specifically requested subjects. Clinics and garden information sessions on site during Pioneer Garden scheduled events.
